MOB HANGS 3 MEN

Overpower Sheriff and Take Prisoners From Their Cells ALL HUNG FROM THE SAME TREE

TAKE MEN FROM JAIL WHO CALL FOR MERCY

Dorothy Quintan, Companion of the Three Says, "They Got No More Than Their Just Deserts," and "That They Had Shown Her Something of Life."

(By Associated Press)
SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 10.—The Old Testament vengeance, "A life for a life," was exacted of George Boyd, Terence Pitts and Charles Valento by a mob here today. The mob, consisting of from 50 to 100 men, all armed and masked in black, entered the Sonoma county jail at 12:30 a. m., overpowered Sheriff John Boyes and deputies, took the three men to a cemetery, and hanged them from the same limb of an oak tree.

Had the three lived, they would have faced the courts before noon today on the charge of murdering Sheriff John A. Petray of Sonoma county and Detectives Miles Jackson and Lester Dorman, of San Francisco, the officers who were shot down by Boyd, he had confessed, when they attempted to arrest the three men here Sunday as members of the San Francisco gang which recently had attacked a score or more of young women.

There was no confusion, no hurry, no opposition to the mob. All had been carefully prearranged, even to the acetylene torches with which to burn the locks off the cell doors. Fifteen or more automobiles, with the license plates removed, advanced on the county jail shortly after midnight. The occupants alighted after lining up the machines two abreast. A cordon of guards was thrown around the jail and persons who came near were warned away, while a dozen masked men entered the jail. The sheriff, four deputies and two visitors were covered with pistols, the keys to the cells were taken from the sheriff while the officers were kept under the guns. The prisoners were taken from their cells, and Boyd was found lying in a downstairs cell, wounded from a bullet fired by Jackson last Sunday. The men were rushed into waiting automobiles, and the leader of the mob ordered "Get ready." The engines were started and moved toward the cemetery. A tree had been selected, over one limb of which hung three ropes, each with a hangman's noose. Boyd made no comment. Pitts struggled when taken from the automobile. The men were only union suits. The men were pulled up simultaneously, their arms and feet tied. Twenty feet away was Santa Rosa's monument to her war heroes. All was over in a half hour, and the mob moved away and dispersed.

Dorothy Quintan, who was present at the time of the shooting last Sunday and who was held in jail here as a witness, slept quietly this morning while her companions were being hanged. She knew nothing of the entire affair until a reporter awoke her an hour or so afterwards. "They got no more than their just deserts," she said, when told of the lynching. She declared she had "fallen into their hands" because they had "shown her something of life," and continued that she blamed Valento for her present plight.

RAILWAY TRAFFIC HAS BEEN SUSPENDED

(By Associated Press)
BRUSSELS, Dec. 10.—The newspaper, Le Peuple, announces that railroad traffic has been suspended in both directions between Belgium and Germany since yesterday afternoon. There has been talk of a German coup d'etat. The Belgian ministry of foreign affairs, however, states there has been no confirmation of this rumor.

In well-informed circles it was stated that the suspension of traffic mentioned by the newspapers applied only to parcels traffic with Germany. Belgian rumors of a German coup d'etat are unsupported by advice from any other quarter, and lacking these, and in view of the Belgian foreign ministry's denial of knowledge of any such occurrence, the reports are received with reserve. The recent reports have not revealed any exceptionally disturbed industrial situation.

RAST BROTHERS ARE SHIPPING OCHRE

This is the third shipment they have made since they discovered its value last spring and returned to the property to work it. They have an enormous quantity of the mineral, but it will require capital to fix up so as to handle it economically, and as they are miners with their hands for capital they have thus far been unable to get it opened up on a large scale and their output is limited. Only 5 Dry Spots in Scotland Since Vote

(By Associated Press)
EDINBURGH, Dec. 10.—Scotland has at least five dry spots. Kilsyth, Sanquhar, Kilmintilloch, Auchtermuchty and Luthburgh, as the result of the "local veto" liquor poll taken this month under the temperance act.

Two towns, Newport and Langholm, voted for a limitation in the saloon traffic and the 37 other Scottish localities voted for "no change." Everywhere the polling caused great excitement and there was a lively poster campaign. Robert Burns' dictum, "Freedom and whisky gang together," was the slogan of the anti-prohibitionist forces. In Aberdeen "dry" placards appeared bearing the words "Hell is the well of whiskey." To this, "wet" supporters retorted with a placard inscribed, "O death, where is thy sting?"

In Glasgow, 24 wards voted "no change," nine for limitation and four for abolition of saloon licenses. As a result, Glasgow's 1604 saloons will be reduced by 99 and there was much drinking of health to William E. "Pussfoot" Johnson, the American campaigner, with empty glasses turned down.

"We are not disheartened," said Colonel Kyle, who led the prohibitionist attack. "It is good work to have abolished 99 saloon licenses in Glasgow, and when we attack again it will be different."

The people most perturbed are the church leaders. In the light of the results they are asking if the churches have the influence in national life which they usually claim. It will be three years before another poll can be taken. Although Glasgow, where the battle raged most fiercely, remains wet, prohibitionists derive encouragement from the large number of individual votes in that city on their side, 142,345 as against 142,340 for "no change," and the London Evening News judges that next time these figures may change places.

BELLEHELEN IS SHIPPING ORE

Pete Wyneken, who is operating in the Bellehelen district, was a visitor to Tonopah this week, and is very optimistic over the future of the Bellehelen mines. Mr. Wyneken is associated with Harry Powell and is leasing on the Powell property. A shaft was sunk to a depth of 15 feet on vein matter and a drift run on the ledge, from which an excellent grade of ore is being extracted. Assays give returns from $129 to $260 per ton. A shipment due to arrive today at the MacNamara mill will be the first shipped from the mine for some time and Mr. Wyneken states that regular shipments will be sent in from now on.

Several properties are now being developed in the district, and Mr. Wyneken states that it is only a matter of time until Bellehelen will be in the limelight as a steady producing camp.
